COVID-19 Update #16 April 14, 2020 at 12:00 PM

A reminder that stay at home orders are in effect and the Town recommends and strongly urges that every person working, living, visiting, or doing business in the Town of Ocean Ridge wear a cloth facial covering consistent with the current CDC guidelines while in a public place, in the public rights-of-way, or on a construction site. Repeating, please immediately begin wearing protective face coverings when outside and away from your primary residence in order to protect yourself, your neighbors, and the Town of Ocean Ridge first responders and personnel. We appreciate your full cooperation in trying to stem the flow of this virus in our community.

Town Manager Stevens signed a 7-day extension of the local state of emergency for Ocean Ridge until April 21st.

Governor DeSantis has extended the closure of vacation rentals until April 30th per Executive Order 20-103.

Important COVID-19 updates and information from several sources are available for review on the Town's website.

Please continue to follow social distancing guidelines and wash your hands frequently. We're in this together. Stay home for us, so we can be here for you.
